FAMILY LAW ACT 1975

DIVORCE ORDER

IN THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT COURT OF AUSTRALIA File No: (P)DGC3893/2020

IN THE MARRIAGE BETWEEN:

YINGJIE WANG

AND

SHUTING GAO

BEFORE: DEPUTY REGISTRAR RIDDIFORD

DATE OF ORDER: Wednesday, 16 December 2020

MADE AT: DANDENONG

The application of SHUTING GAO and YINGJIE WANG for a divorce order in relation to the marriage of the above named parties, which was solemnised on eighteenth day of August 2014, was heard on the sixteenth day of December 2020.

THE COURT FINDS:

1. The marriage is proved.

2. The parties were at all material times domiciled in Australia.

3. The ground for the application for a divorce order - namely that the marriage has broken down irretrievably - is proved.

THE COURT, BY ORDER, DECLARES THAT IT IS SATISFIED:

4. The only child/ren of the marriage, as that expression is defined in section 55A(3), who has/have not attained the age of eighteen years is/are the child/ren:

   XINYU WANG born 06 September 2016

5. The Court by order declared that it was satisfied that the only child/children of the marriage who has/have not attained the age of 18 years is/are the child/children specified in the order and that proper arrangements in all the circumstances have been made for the care, welfare and development of the child/children.

THE COURT ORDERS:

6. A divorce order be made, such divorce order to take effect and thereby terminate the marriage on the seventeenth day of January 2021

NOTES:

1. If a party to the marriage proposes to make an application to a court exercising jurisdiction under the Family Law Act 1975 as to property or as to the maintenance of that party, such application must be made within 12 months from the date upon which this divorce order takes effect. After that time such an application cannot be made without first obtaining the leave of the court to do so.

2. A divorce order which has taken effect may revoke, or otherwise affect the operation of, the Will of a party. Parties should seek legal advice about their position under the law of the State or Territory concerned.

3. A party to a marriage who marries again before this divorce order takes effect (unless the other party has died) commits the offence of bigamy.

4. If, before this divorce order takes effect, it comes to the notice of a party to the marriage that the other party has died, he or she should file an affidavit or certificate in the office of the court giving particulars of the date and place of death.
